

Barbara Joannon

For seven years, Barbara has been involved in coordination, project cycle management, advocacy and capacity building related missions with the aim of contributing to greater respect of human rights of migrants, asylum seekers, refugees, discriminated minorities and people with specific protection needs such as children, IDPs, victims of trafficking and stateless people. She has worked for and with a broad range of stakeholders, including UN agencies, European institutions, French national and local authorities, international and national NGOs as well as grassroots' organizations. She is currently working as a consultant, running several missions simultaneously on the above-mentioned matters.
